Junior Class

Hello Class of 2020 and Parents,

Mrs. Mitchell has met with all Juniors to ensure they agree with the timeline and understand what is expected. We truly wanted to give everyone the flexibility of the summer. Previously, the summer has been reserved for students that need extra support. This timeline will ensure that you have the resources to know what is expected of your students and can assist them with time for meeting the expectations. Please note that there will be no extensions granted and students must meet the final deadline set forth in August. The specific date will be sent later but plan for early August around Open House.

Please email nishira.mitchell@sdhc.k12.fl.us with any questions.

Please see the Extended Essay Schedule on www.kingib.org

Who Am I?

- Graduated with what degree and from where:

BA Political Science-Education, Florida A&M University

M.Ed Educational Leadership, University of South Florida

Ed.D in progress Turnaround Leadership, University of South Florida

- Hometown:

Riviera Beach, FL

- Family:

Married, three boys, Queen of my house

- Proudly worked for/who in the past:

Sharon Morris- the first principal to hire me as an administrator and believe in me in Hillsborough County. She is now an Area Superintendent. She reiterated the values associated with protecting your work family and enjoying what you do each day.

- Famous Celebrities you've met:

Willie Gary

- Famous Celebrities/Superhero you would like to meet:

Michelle Obama

- Best Memory at King IB, so far:

Sprinting after some kids when I was six months pregnant. Let's just say I could not walk the next day. It was the day that I had to realize that my age was catching up with me.

- Why do you choose to teach at KING IB?

Often times people shy away from students that perceive need no help because they are smart. High achieving students often become underrepresented as people feel like everything is ok because they make good grades. The whole students is beyond academic. I understand that component and I enjoy working with students that are perceived to be perfect yet they are normal kids.

- What inspires you to teach?

My family. I came from a background where education was valued so I would be ok in spite of whoever taught me. I had cousins that came from adverse backgrounds so I understand the power of an educator. I believe my cousins would have been much better off if they had educators that I encounter on a regular basis. People that go above and beyond in spite of the adolescent mind. People often forget what they were taught but they never forget how they were treated.

- How would you like your legacy to be known as at KING IB:

A person who would go above and beyond in collaboration with her colleagues for any child on this campus regardless of what academic program they embarked upon.

- One thing no one knows about you (but now everyone will)

I am a complete introvert

- What's your favorite Store to shop?

New York and Company
