King IB Connection 2022-2023 Membership Application

The King IB Connection is a not for profit organization of parents who support the needs and efforts of King IB students and teachers. The goals and activities of the Partnership include:

1. Promote camaraderie and provide support for IB students and their parents.
2. Provide for the instructional needs of IB teachers beyond what the county can support.
3. Increase communication between IB faculty/staff and parents.
4. Increase parental involvement in the IB program.
5. Develop and support initiatives and programs that improve and enrich students' experiences in the IB program at King. This includes a Freshman Survival event, Sophomore Sweet Endings, Junior Pinning Ceremony, and a Senior Banquet.

Thanks to all of our Supporters!
The IB Connection (IBC) was formed to offer support and assistance to the King IB program by sponsoring various events, funding Teacher Grants, and providing faculty support throughout the year. Donations to the IBC allows us to continue to offer the support that directly benefits our students. Thank you for your generosity!
